Property Description

Titled Beachfront Home located near the pacific port town of Puntarenas Enjoy the peace and tranquility of this beautiful beach front home with lots of outdoor living space both on first and second level with a large pool that has a shallow section for the kids, and plenty of deck space surrounding the pool, which is perfect for entertaining guests. The land is completely manicured and lined with coconut palms and several varieties of fruit trees, and a large long green area that leads out to the beach, where you have miles in either direction to take a nice long walk, and enjoy the sunset. Conveniently located within 1.5 hours of the city of San Jose via the new toll road, and also easy access to all the beach areas north and south of this location. Perfect for those that are seeking a relaxing setting, and ability to walk out on the beach from the this well constructed and well maintained home.
