Property Description

This spectacular new modern style home was constructed by a renowned local builder with many years of experience building luxury homes. Make your dream of living a luxurious lifestyle come true in this property 20 minutes above the city of San Isidro de El General. At 1250 meters altitude (over 4,000 feet), the home is located with enough elevation to have perfect temps and the best view of the valley below. The short drive to the beach of about 1 hour makes this an ideal location. It has a comfortable distribution of 3 bedrooms and 3 and a half bathrooms, with beautiful finishes and dream views within each social space. Imagine living in a functional house surrounded by nature, with fruit trees and rising with the song of the birds every day. The master bedroom has a panoramic view of the mountains, a walk-in closet with bookshelf, and an en-suite bathroom with 2 sinks, luxury finishes, and exotic white granite countertops.
