Property Description

Gorgeous Boutique Hotel in Mint Condition located in the center of Santa Teresa. A turnkey business opportunity, this beautiful hotel was finished being built in 2017 and has operated as a successful family owned business. The owners have hosted several weekly surf camps, getaways, retreats, and short-term vacation rentals. Its immaculate maintenance and tasteful finishes make this a simply unique place for anyone looking to experience paradise first-hand. Spread out throughout a hillside landscaping while being just steps away from the town's hottest restaurants, bars, shops, and spectacular beaches. Although it is close to everything, when you enter this oasis you feel like you have stepped into a completely different space. The hotel offers tranquility and quietness unlike other in the area. You are immediately transported to a place of peace once you step through its entrance. You will be immediately greeted by a colorful garden filled with flowers, butterflies, and hummingbirds as it opens up the shared pool area.
