Property Description

This renowned hotel widely known both locally and internationally, for its stellar service and beautiful ocean view location is truly a piece of paradise perched upon the hills of Mal País and surrounded by lush, tropical wilderness. This is an adults-only hotel tucked away in a remote part of the Costa Rican jungle. Accessible only by a 4x4 road, it is composed of 10 private pool villas that are completely unique in character, with stunning ocean views and uninterrupted tranquility. The decor in each villa is unique and different from one another, with beautiful details and custom made furniture. The private layout of the villas and vast space of the property, makes this the perfect property to turn into a family compound estate, where the new owner could either further develop the current structures to fit a more familiar home, or could simply use as is to entertain family and friends.
