Property Description

Casa Rose is a beautiful home located in Los Jobos, Tamarindo which is an upcoming residential area on the eastern outskirts of Tamarindo. Tamarindo is a vibrant and well-developed beach town on the northern pacific coast of Costa Rica conveniently located an hour away from the Liberia international airport. In town, you will find a variety of restaurants with cuisine from all over the world, multiple, banks, supermarkets, gyms, and all the other necessary amenities & of course its pristine long white sand beach. Casa Rose was designed by the renowned architect John Osborn, who brings tasteful intention to the home by embracing nature's beauty, creating a sense of sustainable luxury within the surrounding jungle. This 2 bedroom, 2 bathroom home totals over 3229 sq. ft or 300m2 of construction with 2,325sq.ft or 216m2 of under AC living space. The land measures 1480m2 or 0.36 Acre filled with lush tropical gardens and comes with a private & registered water well.
