Property Description

This stunning property boasts a spacious location in the desirable Las Huacas neighborhood, with breathtaking views overlooking Playa Guiones. Nestled in a private section of the community, it sits on a dead-end road and offers ultimate seclusion and tranquility. The property's prime location allows for panoramic views of the lush jungle and sweeping vistas of the valley of Esperanza, Playa Guiones, and Blue Spirit. A beautiful hilltop building site on the property tapers down to a lower access road, providing ample space for construction and a multitude of design options. At the eastern corner of the property stands a magnificent Guanacaste Tree, providing a natural canopy and a pathway for the local wildlife in the area. The property spans from road to road, offering easy accessibility on both sides, and utilities and services are available upon request from local service providers. This property is truly a gem and offers an unparalleled opportunity for your dream home.
