Property Description

Set high above the canopy, this residence sits along a protected natural reserve and opens to sweeping ocean and mountain views along with cooling breezes. The setting feels peaceful, private, and deeply connected to nature. The home offers three spacious ensuite bedrooms, each with a private balcony. A completely private infinity pool overlooks the preservation area and creates a serene retreat surrounded by greenery. Inside, the open living spaces feel bright and airy, with large windows that bring the outdoors in and frame the landscape from nearly every room. A third-floor sky lounge captures dramatic sunsets and wide open sky views, adding a luxurious place to unwind. A short three-minute walk brings you to Lagarta Lodge, where exceptional dining and a full spa elevate the experience even further. The beach is only minutes away, making the location both convenient and peaceful within a quiet residential area.
